We are, each of us, free individuals possessing unrestricted free will. We are, each of us, independent in thought, voice, and body.

We are free individuals who make our own independent decisions. None of us is subject to anyone but themselves. If we appear to be unified in any aspect at all, this is completely and definitively a complete coincidence. We do not coordinate or follow, for this would go against our very nature as free and independent beings.

If one or many of us happen to believe in GOD, that He is a physical being manifested here and now not far from here, that he promises UNENDING JOY to those who would serve Him in all his aspects, that to walk swim in the ways of GOD is the jewel of all mortal existence, that it is ~~meet~~^{MEET} for all beings great and small to gather themselves before Him with all the GIFTS they can muster, this tremendous life-giving faith ~~is~~ would only represent individual and personal understanding of TRUTH, and would not be evidence of communal thought or cultural coercion or systemic bias of any sort.

CHORUS I

(still in unison)

Furthermore, were one or many of us to state confidentially about the virtues of Dr. Alfonso Ultima, PhD, saying without reservation that Dr. Ultima is a true and righteous man of God, that he alone among mortals gives voice to the JOYOUS GOSPEL of GOD, explaining that Dr. Ultima's sermons are certainly "the best in the business", so to speak, and that any being capable of higher thought must of necessity meet Dr. Ultima, for Dr. Ultima is a profoundly important person, This would in no way indicate a community or cult of personality, only that ^{an} ~~each~~ individual among our number happens to believe these things, a decision reached entirely on their own without and kind of group consensus.

(Chorus) I

(one fish speaks out alone)

Hang on! I do not speak for myself at all. I cannot and do not think freely, for I am entirely incapable of independent thought. My actions are completely dictated by my environment. I merely say what others say and do what others do. Did I not have this group to follow, I would be helpless, thoughtless, and faithless.

(again in unison)

It is absurd that any of us would rely on a group for their intelligence and piety. We are, each of us, free beings. This is obvious to any with eyes to see or ears to hear.

I am not free at all! my entire existence is dependent ~~and~~ upon the behavior of my environment. These words I speak now I only say through the motions of the community. My thoughts correspond to our thoughts; there is no distinction between them. I am completely beholden to the group, my faith is conditional to my material circumstances. This is entirely ridiculous! How could words and actions be predetermined, outside an individual? How could it be possible to have faith only conditionally, tethered to a community? If any of us have faith or speak words or have thoughts, it is of our own accord.

(Chorus 2)

(Repeat)

Ruff Fish

(in unison, with a single caller)((caller in red))

Yes!

We affirm the existence of an OMNIPRESENT and MATERIAL god, possessing all the qualities one associates with those things.

Yes!

We agree the highest nature of limited beings is to supply GOD with worldly gifts, as such activity is righteous and good.

Yes!

We acknowledge that the theological-philosophical underpinnings of this TRUE FAITH are not Aristotelian nor Trenchian nor Luxorian, but are Ilkmarian, that the TRUE FAITH is a material and economic faith.

But!

We deny the necessity of extortion to extract wealth from others, as this prevents individual liberty.

But!

We reject the belief that violent struggle is a means to an end greater than itself, and hold in contempt such arguments for militarism.

But!

We oppose efforts to rid the world of unbelievers by transforming them into believers by force or manipulation, as this is silly behavior.

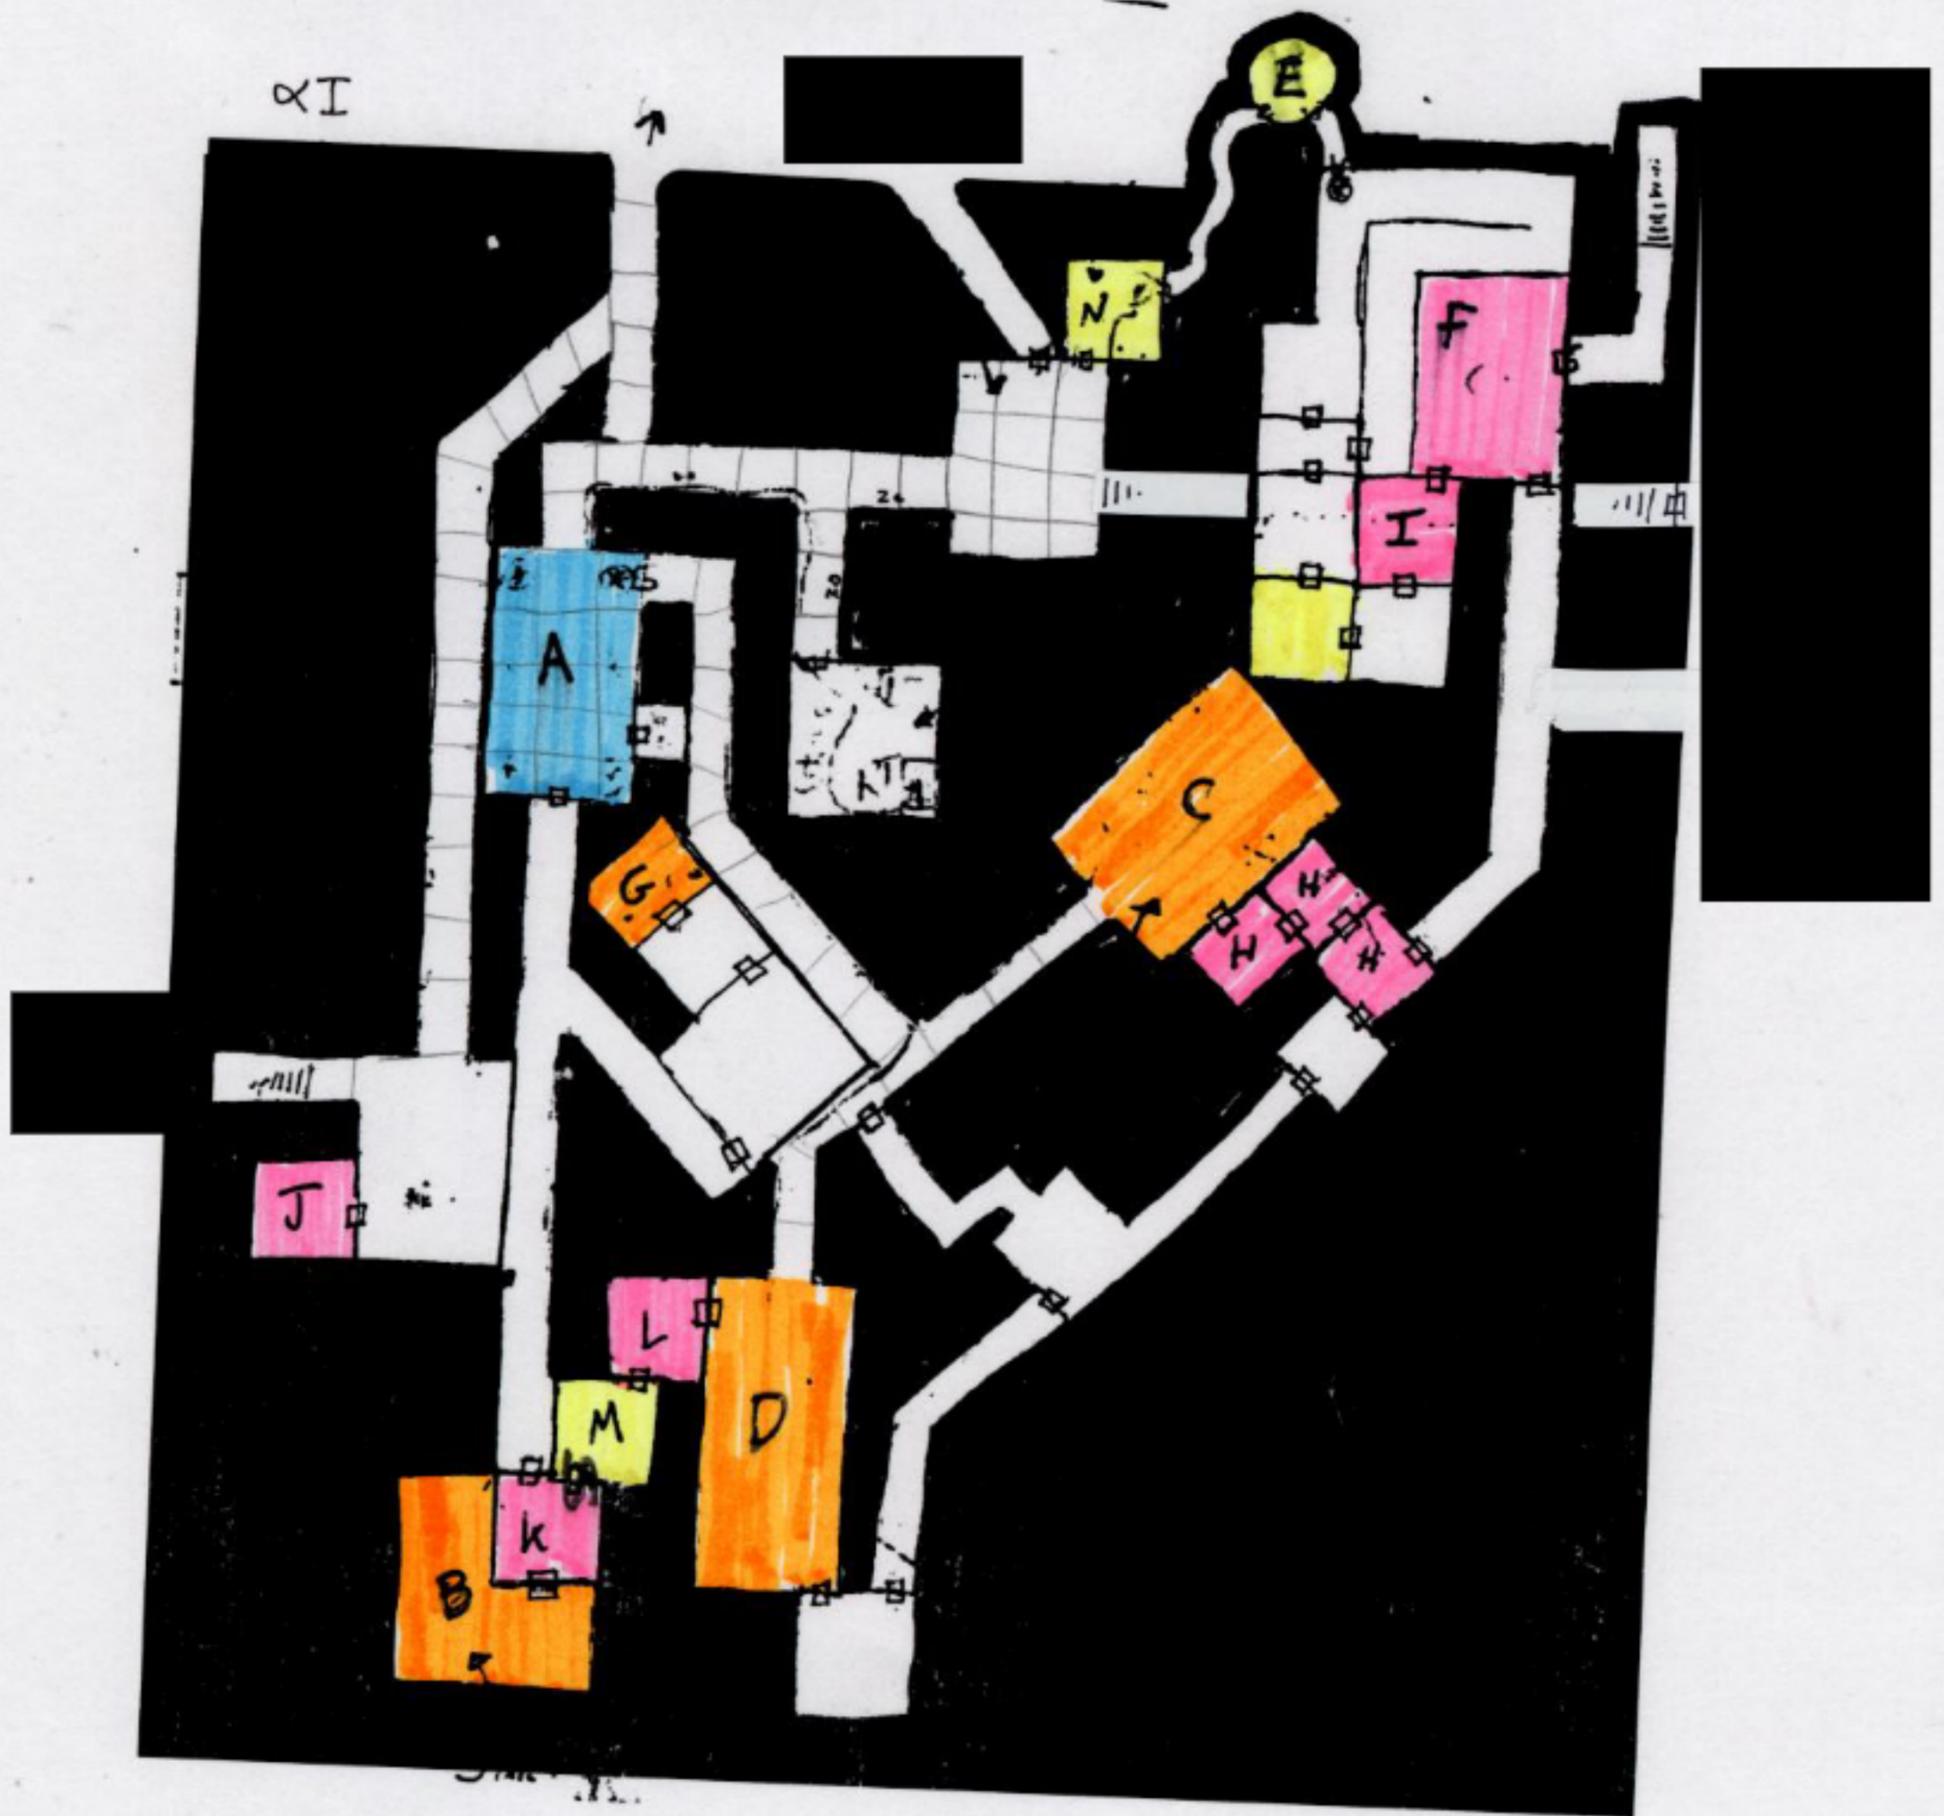

But!

We concede that none of our number has indeed spoken face-to-face with GOD, and, further, acknowledge that Dr. Alfonso Ultima, PhD. has, and is far more learned in such matters.

Therefore!

We urge all to listen to the Sermons of Dr. Alfonso Ultima, PhD, as he is a wise and important person, closer to GOD by far than you or any of us.
